Update from the Director of the Professional Licensing Boards:

The Professional Licensing Boards have recently made numerous changes to streamline operations, and increase efficiency and customer service. One distinct change has been a significant investment in technology. In November 2008, the Professional Licensing Boards began scanning all license applications and written correspondence, creating electronic copies. These electronic copies allow our staff to be more responsive to questions concerning your license application or renewal. Our on-line system allows you to check your license application or renewal status, and update your physical and email addresses. As we are doing more business electronically, please provide us with your email address if you haven't already. We encourage you to keep this information current.

As the Director of the Professional Licensing Boards, it is my responsibility to ensure Board staff adequately meets your needs. I will continue to update you on the improvements we make, and I hope you will continue to see positive changes in your experience with us.

Regards,

Randy Vaughn

Director of the Professional Licensing Boards

Board Staff:

Steve Lindsey
Executive Director
Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies

The Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies consists of seven members: two private detectives, two private security businessmen, two state, county or municipal law enforcement officers and one consumer member. Typically, the Board meets six times each year. Board meetings are open to the public, with the exception of executive session, in which confidential matters such as complaints, disciplinary items, and applications are discussed.

The Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies was created for the purpose of safeguarding the citizens of this state by regulation of the private detective and security businesses. The regulation of such business is declared to be in the public interest.

Number of Active Licensees:

Company, Private Detective: 628
Company, Security: 364
Company, Private Detective/Security: 163
Company, In-House Security:

Private detective businesses and private security companies are required to have a company license issued by the Board. The private detective employee, armed or unarmed, must be registered as an employee with the private detective company. Armed security guards must also be registered with a security company. Unarmed security guards are not required to be registered but must have completed the minimum number of training requirements set by board rule. The Board also licenses training instructors to regulate all training requirements for licensure, registration, and weapon permits required by the law.

Concealed and exposed weapon permits are issued only upon a complete employee application submitted by the company. The company certifies that the employee has met the training requirements of the law and rules.

How do I renew my license?

You may renew your license on the Professional Licensing Board website with a credit card. Click on the “License Renewal” icon and follow the instructions. You will be asked a series of questions including whether you have been arrested, convicted or received a board sanction since your last renewal, whether you have completed your continuing education requirements, and whether or not you are a U.S. citizen. Renewing your license via the website is the fastest way to renew your license.

The Professional Licensing Boards do not mail paper renewals unless requested. A paper renewal form may be requested by the licensee by calling the Board office at (478) 207-2440, or submitting a written request. Licensees may also call our automated system at (404) 463-1100 and request a paper renewal form using their personal identification number included in their renewal notice.

Disciplinary Issues:

The Board addresses these issues on a case-by-case basis and applies sanctions to those who violate the Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies Practice Act, Board rules, and policies. It is important that licensees review all laws, rules and policies that affect their profession. These may be found on the Board’s website at www.sos.ga.gov/plb/detective.

All public disciplinary actions will be reflected in the Board minutes which may be found on the Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies website.

Grounds for denial, suspension, revocation of a license, or other disciplinary actions may be found at O.C.G.A. § 43-38-11 or at O.C.G.A. § 43-1-19, which can be found on the Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies website.

Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies Complaints Process Information:

The Georgia General Assembly created the Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies to regulate the licensing and practice of private detectives and security agents. The responsibility of administering the laws in O.C.G.A. § 43-38 is given to the Board, whose members are appointed by the Governor. The Board determines if applicants meet licensure requirements, promulgates rules, and considers complaints against licensees and allegations of unlicensed practice. The process for disposing of complaints is as follows:

Complaint Form:

Complaints must be reported to and received by the Board in writing. Written complaints may be submitted to the Board office or on-line at <http://sos.georgia.gov/myverification/submitcomplaint.aspx>. Documents received in connection with a complaint will not be returned. The complaint must contain sufficient factual evidence indicating a clear violation of Georgia law or Board rules.

Investigations:

The Board gives serious consideration to all complaints. Further investigative action may be taken. Should you file a complaint, you may be contacted by a Board inspector or investigator for additional information. Investigative files are considered confidential for any purpose other than a hearing before the Board. However, the Board is authorized to release such records to another enforcement agency or lawful licensing authority.

Notification Process:

While the investigation is ongoing, the Board is unable to discuss the status of a complaint with anyone, including the complainant. When the Board has completed the case, the complainant will be notified in writing of the Board's actions. All public disciplinary actions will be reflected in the Board minutes which may be found on the Board's website.

Frequently Asked Questions:

A list of frequently asked questions may be found on the Board's website. If you cannot find an answer to your question, you may contact the Board office at (478) 207-2440.
